9.12.080 Notice.

9.12.010 Short title.

This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Curfew Ordinance of the Borough of Freehold."
(Prior code § 5-7.1)

9.12.020 Definitions.

For the purpose of this chapter, the following terms, phrases, words and their derivations, shall have the meaning given in this section. When not inconsistent with the context, words used in the present tense include the future, words in the plural number include the singular and words in the singular number include the plural. The word "shall" is always mandatory and not merely directory.

"Borough" means the borough of Freehold, Monmouth County, a municipal corporation of the state of New Jersey.

"Knowingly" includes knowledge or information which a parent should reasonably be expected to have concerning the whereabouts of a minor in that parent's legal custody. It is intended to include and require neglectful or careless parents to maintain a reasonable community standard of parental responsibility through an objective test. It shall be no defense that a parent was indifferent to the activities or conduct or whereabouts of such minor.

"Minor" or "juvenile" means any person under the age of eighteen (18) or in equivalent phrasing often herein employed, any person seventeen (17) or less years of age.

"Parent" means any persons having legal custody of a minor: (i) as a natural or adoptive parent; (ii) as a legal guardian; (iii) as a person who stands in loco parentis; or (iv) as a person to whom legal custody has been given by court order.

"Public place" means any place to which the public has access, including but not limited to a public street, road, thoroughfare, sidewalk, bridge, alley, plaza, park, recreation or shopping area, public transportation facility, vehicle used for public transportation, parking lot or any other public building, structure or area.

"Time of night," as referred in this section, shall be based upon the prevailing standard of time, whether Eastern/Standard Time or Eastern/Daylight Saving Time, generally observed at that hour by the public in the borough, prima facie the time then observed in the police station.

"Year of age" means and continues from one birthday, such as the seventeenth to (but not including the day of) the next such as the eighteenth birthday, making it clear that seventeen (17) or less years of age is treated in this section as equivalent to the phrase, "under eighteen (18) years of age." Similarly, for example, thirteen (13) or less years of age means, "under fourteen (14) years of age."

(Prior code § 5-7.2)

9.12.030 Curfew for minors.

A. It is unlawful for any person or persons thirteen (13) or less years of age to be or remain in or upon any public place within the borough at night between ten p.m. and six a.m.

B. It is unlawful for any person or persons seventeen (17) or less years of age to be or remain in or upon any public place within the borough at night:

1. Between nine p.m. and six a.m. for the period beginning October 24th through November 1st;
2. Between eleven p.m. and six a.m. for the period beginning November 2nd through October 23th.

C. Notwithstanding subsections A and B of this section, a person shall not violate this section if such person is or remains in or upon any public place during the proscribed hours for the following reasons:

1. For medical emergencies;
2. Extracurricular school activities;
3. Any cultural, educational and social events sponsored by religious or community-based organizations.

(Ord. 2001/29 § 4; prior code § 5-7.3)

9.12.040 Parental responsibility.

It is unlawful for a parent having legal custody of a minor knowingly to permit or by inefficient control to allow such minor to be or remain upon any borough street or in any place under circumstances not constituting an exception to, or otherwise beyond the scope of, the curfew ordinance as contained in this chapter.

(Prior code § 5-7.4)

9.12.050 Penalties--More than one violation.

A. If, after receipt of a warning notice pursuant to this chapter of a first violation by a juvenile, a second curfew violation is adjudicated against the same minor the parents of the minor shall be subject to prosecution under this section. Violators of this chapter shall be required to perform community service and may be subject to a fine of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000.00). If both juvenile and the juvenile's parent violate the curfew ordinance, they shall be required to perform community service together.

B. Any juvenile who shall violate any of the provisions of the curfew ordinance, as contained in this chapter, more than three times shall be reported by the chief of police to the juvenile authorities as a juvenile in need of supervision and the chief of police may proceed to file such charges with the Superior Court of New Jersey, Family Part, as he or she may deem appropriate.

(Prior code § 5-7.5)

9.12.060 Enforcement procedure.

If a police officer reasonably believes that a juvenile is on the streets in violation of the curfew ordinance, as contained in this chapter, the office shall notify the juvenile that he or she is in violation of this chapter and shall require the juvenile to provide his or her name, address, and telephone number and how to contact his or her parent or guardian. In determining the age of the juvenile and in the absence of convincing evidence such as a birth certificate or driver's license, a police officer on the street shall use his or her best judgment in determining age. If the officer determines that a person is in violation of this chapter he or she shall take the juvenile to the police station where a parent or guardian shall immediately be notified to come for the juvenile whereupon they shall be questioned. This is intended to permit ascertainment, under constitutional safeguards, of relevant facts and to centralize responsibility in the person designated there and then on duty for accurate, effective, fair, impartial and uniform enforcement, and recording, thus making available experienced personnel and access to information and records.

- A. Police procedures shall constantly be refined in the light of experience and may provide that the police officer may deliver to a parent or guardian thereof a juvenile under appropriate circumstances, for example, a juvenile of tender age near home whose identity and address may readily be ascertained or are known.
- B. A police officer discharging an enforcement obligation under this chapter shall file a written report with the chief of police or shall participate to the extent of the information for which he or she is responsible in the preparation of a report on the curfew violation. It is not the intention of this chapter to require extensive reports that will prevent police officers from performing their primary police duties. The reports shall be as simple as is reasonably possible and may be completed by police departmental personnel other than sworn police officers.
- C. When a parent or guardian, immediately called, has come to take charge of the juvenile, and the appropriate information has been recorded, the juvenile shall be released to the custody of such parent. If the parent cannot be located or fails to take charge of the juvenile, then the juvenile shall be released to the juvenile authorities, except to the extent that in accordance with police regulations, approved in advance by juvenile authorities, the juvenile may temporarily be entrusted to an adult relative, neighbor or other person who will on behalf of a parent or guardian assume the responsibility of caring for the juvenile pending the availability or arrival of a parent or guardian.

- D. In the case of a first violation by a juvenile the chief of police shall, by certified mail, send to the parents or guardians of the minor, written notice of the violation with a warning that any subsequent violation will result in full enforcement of the curfew ordinance as contained in this chapter, including enforcement of parental responsibility and of applicable penalties.

(Prior code § 5-7.6)

9.12.070 Violations--Penalties.

A. If, after receipt of a warning notice pursuant to Section 9.12.060 of a first violation by a juvenile, a second curfew violation is adjudicated against the same minor the parents or guardians of the minor shall be subject to prosecution under Section 9.12.050. For the first parental offense a parent shall be subject to a mandatory fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00), and for each subsequent offense by a parent the minimum fine shall be increased by an additional twenty-five dollars ($25.00) e.g., fifty dollars ($50.00) for the second offense, seventy-five dollars ($75.00) for the third offense. The judge of the municipal court upon finding a parent guilty, may sentence the parent to pay this fine and the costs of prosecution.

B. Any juvenile who shall violate any of the provisions of the curfew ordinance, as contained in this chapter, more than three times shall be reported by the chief of police to the juvenile authorities as a juvenile in need of supervision and the chief of police may proceed to file such charges with the Superior Court of New Jersey, Family Part, as he or she may deem appropriate.

(Prior code § 5-7.7)

9.12.080 Notice.

Notice of the existence of this chapter and of the curfew regulations established by it shall be posted in, on or about public or quasi-public places as may be determined by the chief of police in order that the public may be constantly informed of the existence of this chapter and its regulations.
